Minibus Description

The 2026 Ford Ranger Wildtrak is the perfect choice for drivers and businesses wanting a premium pickup with standout capability, advanced technology and a commanding road presence — all without the upfront cost of ownership. Leasing the latest Wildtrak model gives you access to Ford’s newest generation of engineering, refinement and performance, wrapped in a bold design that’s built for both work and lifestyle use.

Powered by Ford’s latest drivetrain options, the 2026 Wildtrak delivers strong towing ability, impressive payload capacity and smooth, confident performance across all terrains. Whether navigating worksites, towing equipment or heading out on weekend adventures, the Wildtrak’s robust chassis and advanced 4WD system ensure capability you can rely on. The updated Model Year also brings improved efficiency and enhanced driver?assistance features for a safer, more refined drive.

Inside, the Wildtrak offers a premium, tech?rich cabin designed for comfort on long journeys and practicality during demanding workdays. High?quality materials, supportive seating and Ford’s latest infotainment system — complete with large digital displays, smartphone integration and intuitive controls — create a modern, connected driving environment. It’s a pickup that feels just as at home on the motorway as it does off?road.

The exterior styling of the 2026 Wildtrak continues to set it apart, featuring signature Wildtrak detailing, bold grille design, rugged bodywork and distinctive alloy wheels. Its muscular stance and refined finish give it a commanding presence, while practical touches such as integrated side steps, roof rails and a durable load bed make it a true working tool as well as a lifestyle vehicle.

With flexible leasing options and UK?wide delivery, the 2026 Ford Ranger Wildtrak is an ideal solution for businesses and private drivers who want predictable monthly costs, no depreciation worries and access to Ford’s latest pickup technology. Leasing this brand?new Wildtrak gives you the freedom to enjoy a top?spec, highly capable pickup with all the benefits of a modern contract hire agreement.
